

Loyalists of Chaleur Bay

Sherman, Simeon [Simon] of Saratoga, Albany Co., farmer and carpenter.

Memorial New Carlisle 1786. He fled in November 1776 and joined Maj. Edward Jessup at Crown Point, serving as a Pvt. until December 1783.

Claim for 200 acres on lease; a house; carpenter's tools, etc.

Evidences: Deposition 15 March 1786 New Carlisle by Abraham Brown that he lived in the claimant's neighbourhood before the war and knew him as a peaceable man; he fled with him in 1776. Deposition of the same date and place by James Stone that he and the claimant took to the woods and got to Canada.

American Migrations, New York section, page 337

A NEW CLAIM

242. Evidence on the Claim of Simeon Sherman, late of Saratoga.
Lived at Machick in 1783.
He is a native of Massachusetts Bay. In 1775 he lived at Still Water on a Leased Farm, never served with the rebels. He came into Crown Point in 1776 with Major Jessup & served in his

[Quebec,]
[2nd August,]
[1787.]

Corps the whole War.

Produces his discharge 24th December, 1783. He now resides near Quebec.

200 acres of Land from Gen. Tanbrooks. He took the lease in 1774. He was to pay £4 York pr. Hundred. He had cleared 5 acres & built a House. Stock, Furniture, & Tools, a lot of Farming Utensils. All these were taken by the rebels.

(Margin Notes are included in square brackets [] to the right of the transcription, on par with their placement in the document. The notes are on the left hand side of even numbered pages, and on the right hand side of odd numbered pages.)

Second Report of the Bureau of Archives for the Province of Ontario, Part 1
Proceedings of Loyalist Commissioners, Quebec-Montreal, 1787-8. Vol. XI.
Before Commissioner Dundas, page 337.
