NOTE ADDED BY ENUMERATOR: This and the three following sheets according to their number and containing the settlers in the Patricktown settlement in rear of Manderson's Mills. The settlement contains upwards of 200 souls, mostly Irish. They are industrious and comfortable. They have one school which I am sorry to say is but badly supplied with a teacher, being the greater part of the time vacant, as it is at present, or supplied with very incompetent teachers, a circumstance probably thought the less of from the fact of such being the general character of all the schools in the county. The small amount of colonization funds expended in the settlement has vastly increased the number of settlers within the last few years.
