NOTE: Here is erected a Presbyterian Church with an accommodation for 450 persons, the value of which however at present cannot be ascertained. This Church hath been without a Minister for some time past, but expectations of one from Scotland very shortly. A Glebe and Manse is now being procured for his reception. This congregation will now number upwards of 700 souls. Three acres of land attached thereto.

NOTE: Here is the Roman Catholic Chapel built many years ago, with a Presbytery attached thereto, as also a cemetery. The accommodation is only for about 170 persons. This Chapel is by far too small for the congregation which now numbers nearly (either 500, 600 or 800 - not written clearly). The Syndies? Informs me that they are to commence building a new Church as soon as arrangements are effected for that purpose. The Rev. Mr. Govin officiates here at present.
